

YOUR LAND YOUR FUTURE

Application for CORPORATE Member Representative

"Corporate member" means any public authority or other corporate body that has applied for membership under rule 5(1)(c). A Corporate member has no voting rights. Corporate membership is available to Public authorities and other corporate bodies responsible for the care, control or management of land within the LBG Area of Management or conducting significant activities on that land.

significant activities on that land.
Applicant's Full Name:
Public Authority or Corporate Body representing:
Address of business located within LBG Inc. Opera	tional Area:
Postal address (if different from address listed abo	ove):
Email:
Telephone:
I declare that I am a representative for the public my application is successful, I agree to be bound be
(Signature)	(Date)
INFORMATION FOR
A copy of the Rules of Association is available on our website: www A person who wishes to become a corporate member of the Lesch member and seconded by another member. If your application is accepted, your name and address, as provide be made available to other members upon request under section 5 An applicant whose application for membership of the Association against that decision, give notice to the Secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the	33 of the Associations Incorporation Act 2015. is rejected under sub-rule (4) must, if they wish to appeal to do so with additional supporting documentation as to
An applicant whose application for membership of the Association against that decision, give notice to the Secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the opening the secretary of the secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the opening the secretary of the Association against that decision, give notice to the Secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the opening the secretary of the Association against that decision, give notice to the Secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the opening the secretary of the secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the opening the secretary of the secretary	33 of the Associations Incorporation Act 2015. is rejected under sub-rule (4) must, if they wish to appeal to do so with additional supporting documentation as to
An applicant whose application for membership of the Association against that decision, give notice to the Secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the open secretary and the secretary of the secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the open secretary and the secretary of the Association against that decision, give notice to the Secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the open secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the open secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the open secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the open secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the open secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the open secretary of the open secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the open secretary of the open	is 3 of the Associations Incorporation Act 2015. is rejected under sub-rule (4) must, if they wish to appeal to do so with additional supporting documentation as to date of the rejection. SECONDED: SIGNATURE:
An applicant whose application for membership of the Association against that decision, give notice to the Secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the opening the secretary of the secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the opening the secretary of the Association against that decision, give notice to the Secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the opening the secretary of the Association against that decision, give notice to the Secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the opening the secretary of the secretary of their intention why they should be accepted, within a period of 14 days from the opening the secretary of the secretary	of the Associations Incorporation Act 2015. is rejected under sub-rule (4) must, if they wish to appeal to do so with additional supporting documentation as to date of the rejection. SECONDED:

Please return signed form to: info@lbginc.org.au; or PO Box 185, Donnybrook WA 6239